GAIETY CLUB

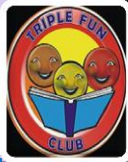

CLASSES : IV&V (SEPTEMBER - 2016)

Great things are not done by impulse, but by a series of small things brought together'.

- VINCENT VAN GOGH

The objective of the club is to provide an avenue for self-expression, enhance the oratory skills of the students and to provide an exposure and opportunity for Puppet show, Debates, Story- building, Elocution, Recitation, etc....

In Charge Teacher – Ms Sreedevi.K

WEEK NO: 4 TO 6

PUPPET – MAKING

A demo was given on making of puppets using WOW (Wealth Out of Waste). Students were provided an opportunity for design planning, to enhance expressions, establish group cohesion and make learning stress-free through a Puppet Show.

WEEK NO: 7 TO 9

WORD BUILDING, SCRABBLE AND PUZZLES

Students enthusiastically solved wide-ranging brainteasers. It's a unique skill that fostered communication while having fun, developed cognitive abilities and expanded their diction.

WEEK NO: 10 TO 12

STORY BUILDING- CREATIVE WRITING PROMPTS

Children could get better at creating, hone problem solving skills and sustain resilience. It sparked their imagination and innovation while whirling a story. They could assemble bits and pieces of story in a sequence.

RECITATION

Recitals facilitated children to develop rhythm, phonemic awareness, memorization skill, self-expression and confident presentation.

ELOCUTION

It is the skill of clear and expressive speech and the art of learning to speak correctly. Students were abetted to inculcate public speaking, build confidence, refine tone and speech patterns, strengthen language, and improve accent and intonation.

I look forward to motivate the students utilize Quiz and Expressions club as a platform to enhance their literary skills and expression through the upcoming activities....
