

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATIONS AT DDMS P OBUL PUBLIC REDDY SCHOOL

On the 15TH August, 2024 the students of DDMS P Obul Reddy Public School celebrated the 78th Independence Day with great zeal and patriotism.

The program commenced with the arrival of the Chief Guest, Aryan Cheela, the school topper and former head boy of DDMS P Obul Reddy Public School, he was escorted with the Guard of Honour by the NCC cadets accompanied by Sri S V Rao, Chairman, DDMS P.Obul Reddy Educational Academy, Sri E.Narasimha Rao, Honorary. Secretary, DDMS P. Obul Reddy Public School, Ms K Vinitha Principal, Vice-Principals and Head Mistresses.

As per the school's tradition of honoring academic excellence, Aryan Cheela was given the special privilege of being the Chief Guest for this significant occasion. The Chief Guest, Aryan Cheela, was invited to hoist the national flag. As the flag unfurled and the national anthem echoed through the grounds, a wave of patriotism swept through the gathering. The event, which honored India's struggle for freedom and its vibrant history, was attended by students, teachers, and staff members.

Following the flag hoisting, the Principal Ms K Vinitha delivered a welcome speech, Honorary Secretary Sri E.Narasimha Rao, and Honourable Chairman Sri S V Rao, spoke about the significance of Independence Day and the values it represents. They also highlighted the importance of remembering the sacrifices of our freedom fighters and encouraged students to contribute positively to the nation. The compering for the event was done with a focus on key events from India's freedom struggle. The audience was taken on a historical journey, beginning with the Revolt of 1857, often referred to as the First War of Indian Independence. In between these narrations, students from classes VI -XII presented cultural performances that included patriotic songs, dances, nukkad natak, each paying tribute to the bravery and resilience of India's freedom fighters. The performances were a colorful display of India's rich cultural heritage and the unity that binds the nation together.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by the Vice Principal Secondary School Ms. B.Nagaveena, followed by the distribution of snacks to the students.
