

TEACHERS' DAY-2024-25

“THE ART OF TEACHING IS THE ART OF ASSISTING DISCOVERY”

On the 5th of September the school was adorned with festivities and hustle and bustle of the students to give back to their dear teachers an entertaining and enjoyable experience filled with music and dance alike. The students of class VI to XII put up a splendid cultural programme, in gratitude to their teachers, which included a couple of group dances, songs and skit that made the day truly memorable.

Then, the formal celebration commenced amidst the gracious presence of Chairman Sri S.V Rao ,Hon Secretary Sri Narasimha Rao , Principal Ms. Vinitha.K and the vice-principals of senior secondary and secondary school, Head mistresses of pre-primary and primary wing. The customary and unique feature of the celebration in the school is to felicitate two eminent teachers, one from education field and one from art field. This year the school had the privilege of honouring Smt. C. Ramadevi, the former principal ,Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, and the present Academic director & Chair person ,Bhavan’s Hyderabad Kendra and the other famous personality Smt. Y. Rama Prabha, Chairperson, DDMS College of Fine Arts and Media Education. Speaking on the occasion , Smt Ramadevi congratulated PORPS for its exemplary service of holistic education and motivated the teachers to be passionate about such a noble profession. Smt. Rama Prabha in her address, emphasized the need to integrate art and music in educating the children as per NEP rules.

The senior most teacher, Ms. J.V VijayaLakshmi, who has completed 24 years of service in this institution was also felicitated by the school management.

Overall it was an enriching day for the teachers.
