

YUGEN 4.0 MODEL UNITED NATIONS

P. Obul Reddy Public School recently hosted the highly anticipated YUGEN 4.0 Model United Nations (MUN) conference on August 24th and 25th, welcoming over 300 delegates from various schools across the region. YUGEN, representing the words Yuva Jana, is a model United Nations in which students role-plays as different world leaders to debate geopolitical issues. The event commenced with a grand guard of honour as the Chief Guest Amb D.B. Venkatesh Varma, Distinguished Fellow at the Vivekananda International Foundation (VIF) and former Ambassador of India to DISEC, Guest Of Honour Chairman, DDMS P.OBUL REDDY EDUCATIONAL ACADEMY Sri S.V. Rao , GUEST of Honour ,Honorary Secretary, DDMS P.OBUL REDDY EDUCATIONAL ACADEMY Sri E. Narasimha Rao ,Principal Ms.K.Vinitha ,Vice Principals and Headmistresses.

The conference featured seven dynamic committees: DISEC (Disarmament and International Security Committee), Lok Sabha, UNSC (United Nations Security Council), UNHRC (United Nations Human Rights Council), HCC (Historical Crisis Committee), WEF ( World Economic Forum) and International Press. Delegates engaged in enthralling discussions, honing their skills in debate, public speaking, and critical thinking.

Over the course of two days, delegates delved into various contemporary topics of global significance, engaging in heated debates and finding innovative solutions to complex issues. One interesting agenda raised in the WEF was an Open Agenda forum, in which delegates could propose agendas they felt were relevant and the highest priority agenda was chosen. Lok Sabha found fiery and passionate speeches on the CAA, and the HCC pondered on the Battle of Stalingrad and alternate resolutions to the war. DISEC and UNHRC focused on aspects of the Israel- Palestine conflict while UNSC tabled the long standing tensions in the South China Sea. The International Press played key roles in questioning the delegates through press conferences and articles.

The Closing Ceremony featured a captivating cultural performance, followed by the award ceremony honoring outstanding delegates. The event was attended by Principal Ms. Vinitha Anil, Vice Principals Ms. Vijaylakshmi and Ms. Nagaveena, and Faculty Coordinator Dr. Shweta Lohani, who commended the efforts of the Secretariat and the Organizing Committee in making YUGEN 4.0 a resounding success.
