

WORKSHOP BY KARADI PATH

Learning a new language is never easy, but if the right methods are employed, then it can be a child's play.

Ms Preetika from Karadi Path, a social innovation enterprise conducted a resourceful workshop for English Teachers on Reimagining English Classrooms on 19th November in Hotel Avasa.

Ms Ngalakshmi & Ms Sowjanya from our school attended the workshop. Karadi Path focuses on helping students learn English through activities, music and stories. The stories are narrated by eminent personalities like Rahul Dravid, Sanjay Dutt etc. The organization trains teachers to tap their strengths and their connection with the students in order to learn English effortlessly. Ms Preetika explained Karadi Path's methodology to teach English and emphasized on the importance of learning English as learning in all subjects is enhanced through better English proficiency.

Karadi Path focuses on bringing the four parameters: the voice expression, the facial expression, actions and visuals in the classroom and its aim is to make the language learning intuitive.

