

BURLINGTON ENGLISH 100 ED(EDUCATION) FEST 2024

An interesting workshop was conducted by Burlington English Publishers for school teachers to fine-tune their existing knowledge of the English language. The workshop was conducted on the topic “The Brain Loves Rhythm” on 21st September, 2024 at Hotel Quality Inn Residency, Nampally, Hyderabad. The session was hosted by Mr. Andrew Steele, an educator, English language teacher, content creator and language assessment expert to enrich the teachers to identify how pronunciation is important and how to integrate it into the classroom practice.

The workshop was very illuminating and upskilling for educators with the concepts such as-

- * Why teaching pronunciation is important and how to integrate it in the classroom.
- * Identifying the pronunciation priorities based on the latest research.
- * How to bring joy and learning in the classroom with chants and songs.

The session was attended by Ms.K C Srivani, Headmistress of Primary, Ms. Sreekala Madhavan, HOD of English department, Ms.Seema Sharma, English Coordinator of Primary and Ms. Gowri Varaprada, English facilitator with lot of zeal and enthusiasm.
