

HINDI WORKSHOP

MADHUBUN EDUCATIONAL BOOKS ,Hyderabad organized a one full day workshop at Hotel Taj Mahal, Secunderabad highlighting the process of language learning techniques on the topic “Holistic Development and Art Integration ”(as per the NEP and NCF). Keeping in mind the 360 degree holistic development of the students, Ms Mangotha Varala and Ms Vijaya Bharathi.R , the Hindi facilitators attended the workshop on 24th October, 2024.

The session was headed by a well-known resource person Mr Pradeep Kumar Jain, a renowned language expert ,educationist, linguist, orator and a writer.

A brief introduction was laid regarding the new National Educational Policy – 2020 seeking to introduce a sea of changes across all levels of education in India. Further main features of National Curriculum Framework (NCF) were touched upon along with the features of Madhubun Hindi Educational Books at various levels. All the topics selected in the textbooks were art – integrated and had inter – connectivity between each of them.

There was a Q and A session in which the teachers expressed their concerns and raised queries regarding the practical problems faced during Hindi teaching process and the same were equally addressed too. Overall the workshop was very enriching, informative and provided scope for teacher’s professional growth and development.
